LAST EDITION. New York. Business Matters-Obsequies-The Tragic End of a Painter-Important in Telegraphic Circles, etc. NEW YORK, Sept. 2.-The Boston & Charleston Steamship Company have filed an assignment of their property to Thomas M. Hempstead.

Additional attachments were granted against the property of the California Bank located in this city in the following suits: Henry A. Tuzi, $17,500; John T. Carr, $20,000; Frederick K. Butterfield, $20,000; and Dennis McMahon, $250.

The funeral of the colored preacher, David H. Vandervere, killed by a train at Long Branch, took place yesterday afternoon from the Shiloh Colored Church. The remains were interred in Cypress Hill Cemetery.

Signor Pietro Valini, of Rome, Italy, who has for several years occupied a prominent position as a painter in this city, yesterday attended a picnic at City Island, given by Congressman Odell, of West Chester. After several speeches had been delivered, he asked permission to speak and quoted some beautiful lines of poetry in his native tongue. He then suddenly drew a small revolver from his pocket and shot himself through the right temple.

The members of the party at first thought it was merely a simulation of suicide, and began to applaud what they believed to be a fine piece of tragic acting. They were soon horror-stricken by the discovery of the truth. The unfortunate man died after lingering four hours, during which time he did not speak. All the friends of Signor Valini are convinced that his suicide was the result of mental disorder. Many of the writers of the United States have attracted attention at the exhibition of the Academy of Design. They were remarkable for their brilliancy of color and were chiefly devoted to subjects in which the tragic element was involved.

It is now pretty definitely settled that all negotiations for the consolidation of the Western Union and Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph lines have come to an end without the probability of any further attempt, at least for the present on the part of the Western Union, to effect that object. It was reported early yesterday that another meeting to reconsider the subject would be held in the afternoon, but no such meeting took place. It is not now believed that any further conference is contemplated.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the W. U. Company was held in the afternoon, and in the proceedings it is understood that no reference was made to any consolidation with the Atlantic and Pacific Company, probably owing to the abrupt termination of the conference yesterday, and the rejection of the propositions made by the Western Union. A report of the Conference Committee which met yesterday, will shortly be made to the Directors of the Atlantic and Pacific.

The officers of the latter company expressed themselves as confident of the future success of the company. It is understood that orders have already been issued for the resumption of work at all points where there had been a suspension consequent upon the consolidation prospects, and a general extension of lines will be made.

Insurrections have been given to complete the line from Chicago to St. Louis. On this route of 280 miles of wire, 23 miles have already been put up, leaving only fifty miles to be completed. The building of additional branch routes is also in contemplation.

It is rumored that the Western Union has requested the Southern and Atlantic Telegraph Company the cancellation of the contract made by the latter company with the Western Union for the use of a wire between Washington and New York. In the event of this contract being annulled the Southern and Atlantic will probably resume its connection with the Atlantic and Pacific, thus making a direct route from New York to New Orleans.

ADVICE TO THE BUSINESS PUBLIC. NEW YORK, Sept. 2.-In view of the termination of negotiations for the consolidation of the A. & P. Tel. Co., with the W. U. Tel. Co., some of the papers have published articles upon the subject, calling upon the merchants and other business men of the country to aid in supporting the opposition company, to encourage its officers to renewed efforts in furnishing satisfactory service, and extending its facilities to new points.

The custom of merchants in many places of patronizing the monopoly from acquired habit, or because the offices of the opposition may not be quite as convenient of access as the Western Union, is deprecated as tending poor encouragement for the successful establishment and maintenance of a cheaper service of a line to work in opposition to the Western Union. The business public are admonished to encourage and patronize the opposition telegraph lines, if they would maintain cheapness, efficiency and dispatch.

The Bank of California. Not so Sure of Retaining-A True Account of the State of Affairs. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.-Yesterday being election day, the banks and many places of business were closed.

Nothing new has transpired in the affairs of the Bank of California. The Chronicle publishes a positive statement to the effect that the bank has reliable assets of $20,000,000, an indebtedness of $18,000,000 and cash in the vaults of eight hundred fifty thousand dollars, and that a guarantee fund of from five to ten millions is nearly all pledged, and that resumption is assured immediately.

Similar statements are being spread abroad. All such assurances are premature. According to information from headquarters, an interview just had with the directors of the Bank of California establishes the previous report that nothing new has transpired in the affairs of the bank.

The positive statements regarding resumption are unauthorized. In reply to a question I received the answer that they were trying to fix up this organization, but don't know whether we will succeed or not.

As to the condition of the bank, the reply was given that the nominal assets were about twenty million, liabilities about fifteen million.

I think the reliable assets will pay the debts. Nothing new from the National Gold Bank and Trust Company or Merchants' Exchange Bank; both report progress in obtaining coin for resumption.

Charlie Ross. IMPORTANT INTERVIEW WITH ONE OF THE ALLEGED ABDUCTORS. NEW YORK, Sept. 2.-The Herald this morning publishes an interview obtained yesterday with Mrs. Mosher, wife of Bill Mosher, one of the abductors of Charlie Ross, and sister of Westerville, now undergoing trial in Philadelphia for alleged participation in the abduction. Mrs. Mosher pretends to know nothing of Charlie Ross, and was certain that Westerville had never seen him or been concerned in the kidnapping. When abruptly asked the question whether the child was living or dead she said she was sure he was living and would turn up before long. She was as sure he was living as that she breathed. She would not believe him dead unless she saw his dead body before her.

When asked how she knew this, she declined to answer. She was asked why she was so positive that Charlie Ross was alive, and replied, I know he is. My husband would not harm a hair of his head; then recovering herself she added nervously: I mean if he had anything to do with it. The Herald editorially believes that this admission of Mrs. Mosher is of consequence at this stage of the case, as there is good reason to believe that she knows whereof she speaks.

Bohn, was discovered near the bank on the way to the police station. He could hardly speak at first, but after a while informed the Detective that three men had taken him from bed during the night, proceeded to the bank and forced him to deliver the keys, by which they opened the safe and abstracted the money. Bohn alleges he was chloroformed and stabbed. No arrests.

Temperance-Marine. BOSTON, Sept. 2.-The Temperance Alliance has decided to call a State Convention on the first Wednesday in October.

The bark Kate Willards has arrived at this port from Fayal, and reports calms the whole passage. The captain states he could have come all the way from the Western Islands in an open boat with entire safety, so calm was the sea. Its latitude 41.10, longitude 61.70, he passed an unknown vessel sunk to the water's edge. It is a dangerous obstruction to navigation during the night or fog.

Disaster on the Rail.

NEWBURG, Sept. 2.-Last night a heavily loaded train from the National Camp Meeting at Wesley Grove, near Goshen, while on the way to Kingston, broke through a rotten bridge near Shawangunk Station. Five cars went down the embankment, and 25 persons were injured, a few seriously.

Capital News. Special to the Star. COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 2.-Columbus Delano, John Delano and Joe Dwyer were all in the city yesterday, taking a night train for Mt. Vernon. The object of their visit here is said to have been to work upon the Republican Executive Committee, and shape the campaign so as to make a defense of Delano a consequence of it, but nothing positive is known regarding the matter.

Conductor Joseph, of the Hocking Valley railroad, is at home in this city, in such a disturbed state of mind that he is to be sent to the Athens Asylum. His condition is said to have been brought about by ill treatment at the hands of pretensed physicians in Indianapolis.

Constantine Smith got badly bruised yesterday at the hands of Fred. Forness, a contractor, and Chris. Crowe, who were subsequently arrested. Smith was attempting to take Forness's team on an execution.

The Treasury Complication. TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 2.-The morning papers, without exception, have made a mistake in speaking of Mr. Sooy's letter as a resignation. It is a mere abandonment of the office. He has ceased to discharge the functions of his office and the interests of the State are suffering as much as if he had died or resigned. His resignation can only be accepted by the Legislature.

That body is not now in session, and it can be convened only at great expense. The office must be filled until the meeting of the next Legislature, the members of which have not been chosen. Gov. Biddle has, therefore, after advice from the best legal talent in the State, decided to appoint a Treasurer ad interim. His name will be announced some time to-day. It will be either Hon. A. M. Reynolds, of Newark, or Ex-State Treasurer McMichael, of Burlington. The latter has been in consultation with his friends to-day.

From Dayton.

There is Peace-Base-ball-Sunday-School-Political, Etc., Etc. Correspondence of the Star. DAYTON, O., Sept. 1. Poor old Wolfgang Silberman-poor old Dutchman-as indigenous to Dayton view of the very trees and flowers and river's bend, whose merry "tra-la-lai" of the familiar "Lauderbach nab ich" has awakened the sluggards of his neighborhood at day dawn many's the time, and whose sweet fresh voice rang out from the twilight road and cut its way through the gloaming straight to our hearts-our poor old Wolfgang is dead! Died by his own hand, too, and with no cause for it save impatience at the illness that kept him prisoner for so long a time-well, well, "fini cokes," and surely the anthems of the celestial regions will be swelled by a voice as sweet as any of the present dwellers therein.

The base-ball match on Saturday, between the Nationals, of our city, and the Ludlows, of your own, resulted in a score of 36 to 27, in favor of the Ludlows. Not so bad a game as the Nationals had looked for, since they were but amateurs and their opponents professionals. One had a finger broken, another a shoulder dislocated, while the catcher's hand "fetched loose," as Mark Twain hath it, not to speak of stony eyes in spaces black as night and other peculiar wounds.

Our other sports of the day-what memories of youth these few words bring back to our withered hearts-when Peter Finner and rules of three tied wrinkles into hard knots all over our foreheads. But now a new Young America demands your patience and pocketbook, and you groan over the list of names of school books that stagger you, and for the children and their parents, and one of his hiding place and leave said place mournfully empty! But theseologies and fairs are signs of the times, and our august school board has decided on one school book a week earlier than the law ordains, to satisfy our eager senators, orators, inventors, etc., in future.

A taboed subject-who don't know it? Oh, paper of the West-that of our Soldiers' Home, but can not one say that it takes 500 dozen ears of corn for one meal, just to astonish us?

Dayton youth are religiously inclined, since it is reported that four hundred and sixty-eight pupils attended Raper Chapel Sunday-school last Sabbath, and how we swayed at no unusual number for the Lutheran Sunday-school to have upon its books.

Mrs. George Pease, a native of Miami township, and well-known throughout Southern Ohio, died Monday. She has been a member of the Presbyterian Church for many years, and lived the life of a Christian wife and mother, forgetting self in her devoted love for her children and husband, who, heartbroken at their loss, survive her. The funeral takes place to-day, at the family residence at Carrollton.

Dear Star, please tell the tramps, the dirty, strong, ill-visited, lazy tramps, who wander from North to South pole, and who invariably take Dayton in as present, that we, the Incorporated Association of Citizens, are organizing a new work-house for their special accommodation, which shall have all the modern improvements-laws, hammers, benches, planes, pegs, leather, and hand saws unlimited for such as may offend our honest sense of justice. We beg of you to state the above from the very bottom of your heart, and to send a large number of them to the new work-house.
